2. Put the verses for your divisions on the second line of blocks created by the lines. (Green above)
3. Put a short description of the passage in the big box. (Red above)
4. Put a title that captures your understanding of each section at the top of each section. The titles should be short and memorable. (Purple above)
5. Title the book – Jonah does not count. Make it something that you will remember that captures what you understand the book is about; be creative. Five words or less. (Orange above)
